

Oregon Association for Vocational Special Needs Personnel (OAVSNP)

February 23, 2007

OAVSNP Awards Banquet: Each year OAVSNP recognizes professionals, consumers and organizations that have made a significant contribution to the field of transition service for young adults with disabilities.

OUTSTANDING PROGRAM OF THE YEAR

C-TEC YOUTH SERVICES

Nominated by Office of Vocational Rehabilitation Services, West-Linn/Wilsonville School District and Oregon City School District, C-TEC is recognized for its inclusion of young adults with disabilities in workforce programs to a level previously unknown in the Clackamas region. Through high school completion programs, e-Schools, vocational training and alliances with other youth services programs, C-TEC has had a pivotal role in creating an infrastructure in which new program associations have flourished. Innovations include the EMP (Employment Made possible) Program, Summer Youth Academy, and training in Retail, Culinary Arts, Customer Service, CNA and Peer Mediation.

